General directions

The Oxford Science Park is located approx. 4 miles south east of Oxford City centre. When travelling from the north use the M40 Junction 9, or from London use the M40 Junction 8.

The Science Park is well signposted however where not indicated follow signs for the A4074 or the Kassam Stadium (follow the brown football) located about 500 metres east of the Science Park.

From Oxford City Centre

Take the A4144 Abingdon Rd south through New Hinksey. At the roundabout turn left, following the signs for Reading and Henley, continue to the J.Sainsbury roundabout and turn right onto the A4074. After a half mile The Oxford Science Park is clearly signed to the left.

From London M40

Leave the M40 at Junction 8, signposted to Oxford, and joining the A40. After several miles you approach the outskirts of Oxford. Turn left at the first roundabout following signs for Reading or The Oxford Science Park. After four miles turn left onto the A4074 to Henley-on-Thames (at the J.Sainsbury roundabout). After a half mile The Oxford Science Park is clearly signed to the left.

From the A34 travelling south

Leave the A34 at the Hinksey Hill Interchange, signposted A423 to Reading. From the roundabout follow signs for Reading, Henley or The Oxford Science Park.

From the A34 travelling north

Leave the A34 at the Hinksey Hill Interchange. signposted A4144 Ring Road. Take the third exit from the roundabout and follow signs for Reading, Henley or The Oxford Science Park.

From Henley-on-Thames

When approaching from the south on the A4074, The Park is signposted to the left towards Sandford-on-Thames. When entering Sandford, turn right under the A4074 into the Park.

By Rail

Oxford railway station has regular services from London Paddington, details of which are available by phoning 0345 484950. In addition, direct services are available to Birmingham, the south coast and north from Oxford station.

By Coach

Coach services run from most cities and major towns to Oxford's Gloucester Green Coach Station. From London Victoria Coach Station, services run every 20 minutes by The Oxford Tube. The journey takes around 90 mins. There are also regular Oxford Citylink services from London Heathrow and Gatwick airports to Gloucester Green Coach station.

From Oxford Rail and Coach stations

The Park is approximately 4 miles from the City Centre Coach station at Gloucester Green and a similar distance from Oxford Rail Station. There is an hourly bus service from immediately outside the train station and from the City Centre (Stop G2 in St Aldates, approx 10 minutes walk from the coach station).

On Arrival

When arriving at The Oxford Science Park, come to The Magdalen Centre (picture below). Come to the reception and ask for Wireless Excellence: We'll come and meet you there.

Parking: There are assigned "visitor spaces" which the park is keen that people adhere to. Do check with reception if unsure about which spaces to use.

For EV drivers, there are a couple of "Podpoint" EV chargers directly outside this building, and several more elsewhere on the site.
